THE BULLOCH HERALD—$2.50 a Year (Plus Sales Tax)
The Bulloch Herald • Statesboro, Ga.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1953

If you are a landowner and have idle or sub-marginal land, we urge you to consider planting some fast-growing pine trees. If you already have growing trees, we urge you to protect them from forest fires and to harvest them selectively.

Your bank has been a leader in helping the farmers of this county to increase the value of their lands by furnishing them a tree-planting machine which enables them to do a faster and better job of planting.

The Machine has been placed in the hands of the County Agent who schedules its use with the help of the local forest ranger and soil conservation agent.

Trees planted this year or next year will be as big as this drawing in ten to fifteen years. They should increase the value of your land from $25 to $100 per acre during this period and with fire protection and proper cutting practices and even larger return can be expected as the trees reach saw timber size.

If you desire more information on pine trees, we have free literature in our bank lobby.

BULLOCH'S TOP PEANUT FARMERS—Six farmers of Bulloch county topped a ton per acre in peanut yields during 1952. They are shown above after receiving their certificates and keys of membership in the Georgia Ton Per Acre Peanut Club, an organization sponsored by peanut processors, the Coastal Plain Experiment Station, and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service. Byron Dyer, Bulloch county agent standing at right, is trying to hold back a grin of pride, for his county outshone all others for peanut farming last year. Others, seated, left to right, Embree C. Hunnicutt, A. S. Hunnicutt, W. O. Griner, W. S. Williams, Clyde Bailey, Henry S. Blitch, and County Agent Dyer. A. S. Hunnicutt, back for his fourth year, was acclaimed the top peanut grower in Georgia. Henry Blitch was back for his fourth year. W. O. Griner last season had the distinction of getting over $300 per ton for his crop, thus becoming the highest paid peanut farmer in the state. Our Task is Theme Of Baptist Women

"Our Task" has been set as the theme for the Association of Baptist Women's Missionary meeting which will be held at the Leffler Church on Thursday, January 22, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Frank T. Proctor, Association Superintendent, will preside. The program for the day is as follows: hymn, "Christ for the Whole World"; devotional message, "Our Task is Just Before Us," by Rev. Carl Cassidy; welcome and introduction will be followed by a message by Mrs. P. F. Martin on "Four Goals for Forty"; Announcements. Special music by Miss Martha Clark.

Missionary message, "Our Task in Japan," by Rev. Glendon McCullough. The roll call will be made by the district secretaries followed by a message, "Our Task in Georgia," by Rev. McCullough. Lunch will follow this message. Then a business session to be followed by a message, "Our Task in Mission Study."

Car Owners Must Get City Auto Tag

Mayor Bill Bowen announced this week that city tags will be required on all cars owned by citizens of Statesboro.

The city tags are here and will be ready for delivery on Monday next week. Mayor Bowen states that all that will be needed to secure a city tag will be for the car owner to present his state auto registration, the city office showing the car make, model and motor number. The city tags are free.

B. C. Bank Holds Annual Meeting

The stockholders of the Bulloch County Bank held their annual meeting in the director's room of the bank Tuesday morning to hear a report on the progress of the bank and to elect directors for 1953.

The directors were all re-elected and are Walter Aldred Jr., W. G. Cobb, George M. Johnston, R. J. Kennedy, Fred T. Lanier, J. L. Matthews, Fred Morris, W. J. Ruckley, and Harry W. Smith.

Following the election W. G. Cobb, president of the bank, made a report of the years activities, pointing out that the bank's deposits had grown from $2,875,778.35 on December 31, 1951, to $3,477,526.85, and that cash and U.S. government securities had grown from $2,111,370.69, to $2,881,409.61. Loans and discounts had increased from $589,845.16 to $783,766.55.

Mr. Cobb stated that in his opinion "business has accepted the change of administration as a healthy change and that the men President Eisenhower has selected are outstanding and that the general thinking is they'll do a good job and will handle the affairs of our nation wisely."

The officers of the bank are R. J. Kennedy, chairman of the board; W. G. Cobb, president; J. L. Matthews, and T. J. Morris, vice presidents; and W. D. Anderson, cashier.

WCS Begins New Series of Study

The first session of the new series of studies "Toward Understanding the Bible" by the Methodist Women will be held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at next week at the Statesboro Methodist Church.

Mrs. Frederick Wilson, secretary of the spiritual life of the Statesboro Methodist Church, announced this session which is the first of four.

The second session will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The third session will be held at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon, January 26, at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Frederick Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Church will speak to the group at each of its sessions.

The purpose of the course of study is to create a desire to read the Bible for a better understanding of the Word of God as it comes through the Holy Scripture.

All who are interested in this study are invited to attend.

The nursery will be open afternoons and mornings.

Representative Preston stated that because of the large volume of matters pertaining to World War veterans and especially veterans of the Korean War that it would be most helpful to have his able assistant in the district available to veterans and people generally. Mr. Johnson is capable of handling matters of all types and Mr. Preston expressed the hope that the people would use this service freely.

Saturday, January 17, has been proclaimed by Mayor W. A. (Bill) Bowen as "Costa Rica Day" in honor of a group of Costa Rican educators who will arrive here tomorrow afternoon with Dr. Marvin S. Pittman from Costa Rica, Central America.

Dr. Pittman has been in Costa Rica since September, 1952, on a special Educational Mission under the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. He is bringing a group of eleven Costa Ricans here to make a tour of eight states to observe and study the American School System.

Dr. Pittman and the group of Costa Ricans will arrive at the Savannah Airport tomorrow afternoon by air at 4:32 A. M. but from the Georgia Teachers College will leave here about 2:00 o'clock to meet the plane and bring the visitors to Statesboro. They will be met at the city limits about 5:45 P. M. by a delegation of Statesboro citizens and escorted to the Aldred Hotel where Mayor Bill Bowen will make a brief statement of welcome.

The following morning Dr. Pittman will take the group to Savannah where they will be the guests of Jim Jordan, principal of the Savannah High School, and Knapp Boddiford, county school superintendent. They will observe classes in the school, being held special for the visitors.

Sunday evening they will be the guests at a reception given by the members of Dr. Pittman's Sunday School Class at the Methodist Church immediately after the Sunday evening services.

The first part of Monday morning they will spend at the college observing classes and taking part in the chapel program.

Later they will be guests of S. H. Sherman, principal of the Statesboro High School, and the teachers. They will observe classes and inspect the Industrial Arts department, and attend the church service which will be held at 10 o'clock.

Monday noon they will be the guests of the Statesboro Rotary Club where Dr. Pittman will have charge of the program. They will leave Monday afternoon.

Their tour of the United States will include Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. They will be in the States for five weeks.

The group includes Mr. Ovidio Soto, president of the Normal School at Turrialba; Mr. Manuel H. Porras, president of the Normal School at San Ramon; Mr. Humberto Munoz, director of teacher training in the field; Mr. Rafael Cortes, director of primary schools in Costa Rica; Mr. Jose M. Chaverri, director of primary schools in San Jose, Costa Rica; Mr. Bolivar Mayo, supervisor of elementary schools; Mr. Isaac Azofeifa, head of all the high schools; Mrs. Elena Cabessa, principal of a girls' high school; Miss Lelia Pizarro, dean of girls, in the largest girls' school; Mr. Joaquin Vargas, principal of a general experimental high school; and Marco T. Salazar, principal of Heredia High School.

The Congressman stated further that he foresaw the system saving the people of Bulloch County "tens of thousands of dollars yearly, as well as probably saving lives and property in emergencies; this program, together with Rural Free Delivery and the REA electrical program, will have done for the people of Bulloch County more than any other three programs."

We've Had It Pretty Good!

YOU'VE HAD IT pretty good—up to now. You've parked your car on yellow curbs. You've parked your car under signs which read "No Parking At Any Time." You've left your car parked for an hour in areas plainly marked "10 Minute Parking."

You've made left turns at intersections plainly marked "No Left Turns." You've made "U" turns under the traffic light and at intersections where "U" turns are prohibited.

You've run through red lights, knowing that there's an ordinance against it.

You've sneaked right turns on red lights, knowing that there's an ordinance against making right turns on red lights.

You've raced along at 40 and 45 miles per hour on the streets of Statesboro, knowing that the speed limit is 25 miles per hour.

You've double parked for longer than an emergency would warrant, knowing that it's not right to do so.

You've jay-walked at all points in the business section of the city at the risk of your own life and limb, as well as the safety of car drivers. In short you've done pretty much as you pretty please as your dictator of all your survey through your windshield.

We sat in on a conference of Mayor Bill Bowen with the members of the police force and City Engineer James Bland on Monday morning of this week. And one simple fact emerged from the conference:

THE TRAFFIC SITUATION ON THE STREETS OF STATESBORO CAN BE GREATLY IMPROVED BY THE FIRM, SINCERE AND IMPARTIAL ENFORCEMENT OF THE TRAFFIC ORDANCES NOW ON OUR CITY BOOKS.

And Mayor Bowen instructed the members of the police force to do just that, and pledged his support of them in the performance of their duty.

If our police perform their duty—we'll learn that we've had it pretty good—up to now!

Here's To The Lady

WE'RE SURE it's gratifying to the ladies that Mrs. Fred Hodges did such a wonderful job at filling the vacancy left in the County Commissioner's office at the death of her husband.

It's gratifying to all the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County to know that she assumed the responsibility of operating the affairs of our county since Mr. Hodges died.

The state of Georgia finds it gratifying that Mrs. Hodges performed a wonderful service to her community.

Here is an editorial which appeared in the Atlanta Constitution on January 9, entitled, "Bulloch Faces Well Under Lady Leader."

"Tell a Bulloch Countian these days that a woman is extravagant and you'll have a hard time convincing him.

"The first woman chairman of a board of county commissioners and the second of the sex ever to serve as a commissioner in Georgia has completed her term, with the county entirely in the black. Bulloch County not only has no debts, but its surplus is $133,623.

"We congratulate the lady commission chairman, Mrs. Fred Hodges, for the successful way in which she has handled the office to which she was named at the death of her husband, longtime Bulloch commissioner. We commend the entire Bulloch Board for its careful management of the county's business.

"This southeastern Georgia community has a progressive spirit, evidenced in this good report from the courthouse and by the fact that Statesboro, the county seat, was a winner in the annual 'Better Home-towns' contest, an achievement which the city celebrated with due ceremony this week."

Georgia's Best Farmers

THERE'S NO DOUBT in the minds of the people of Georgia about the producing ability of the soil of Bulloch County to produce cotton and peanuts.

There's no doubt in the minds of the farmers of Georgia that in Bulloch County there is the top farmer of all Georgia farmers.

There's no doubt in our mind as we toss our hat high in the air over the accomplishments of A. S. Hunnicutt, the county's No. One Farmer.

On December 4 we carried a front page story of his winning the Georgia Five-Acre Cotton Contest with a yield of two and one-half bales of cotton per acre in a "tough year."

This week we carry the story of his being acclaimed the top peanut farmer in Georgia at the Third Annual Meeting of the Georgia Ton Per-Acre Peanut Club. He dug 2,666 pounds of peanuts per acre from 5.9 acres of Bulloch county's wonderful soil—wonderful when farmers like Mr. Hunnicutt tend it.

But our hat tossing is not only for A. S. Hunnicutt.

While it's in the air we shout for his brother, D. J. Hunnicutt, who won first place in the Southeast Georgia Cotton Contest.

And there's still another Hunnicutt for whom our hat goes high—Embree Hun-nicutt, who won third place in the Southeast Georgia Cotton contest, and second in the Georgia peanut contest.

And Henry S. Blitch was declared a member of the Georgia Ton Per-Acre Club the third straight year. W. S. Williams, W. O. Griner, and Clyde Bailey all hit the ton per-acre figure to be recognized by the exclusive peanut growers Club.

Farmers like these give Bulloch County the right to claim that it is the finest county in Georgia.

And so our hat is off and up for them. Congratulations.

Welcome!

WE JOIN the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county in welcoming Dr. Marvin Pittman and his friends from Costa Rica and add "Make Yourselves To Home In Our Community."

We think Dr. Pittman is doing a wonderful thing in bringing these citizens of our Central American neighbor, Costa Rica, up here to see us and see how we conduct our schools and how we go about the routine business of living.

This group of prominent Costa Rican educators will be with us until Monday of next week. While in the U. S. they will visit eight states.

We hope that they find a wonderful welcome awaiting them in every community in which they visit.

We appreciate Dr. Pittman's selecting Statesboro and Bulloch County and Sylvia and Screven County as the beginning points of their visit. We believe that they'll find no more representative group of Americans as they will find here.

Wellcome!
And come again.

May God Be With Him

BEFORE we will have published another Herald Ike Eisenhower will have become the President of the United States.

We add our voice to that of the nation praying that our Almighty God place His hand on Mr. Eisenhower's shoulder and walk with him through the years that are ahead.

We pray that the peoples of this land have understanding of the problems with which our new President is confronted.

We pray that the leaders of this land support this great man in his effort to resolve the troubles that are upon our people.

May knowledge, understanding, strength, and faith be his to lead us. May God be with him.

Near at Hand

Editor's Uneasy Chair

We had a fine visit with one of our neighbors who lives over on College Boulevard, last Saturday afternoon.

We talked about the world situation... about the subject of geography... about his son off at college.

There we stood on the sidewalk just talking up a storm—more than thirty minutes worth.

But the funny thing about the visit is that we were visiting in Savannah, there in front of Adler's store on Broughton street... J. B. Johnson and I.

It was fun. We hardly ever get around to visiting each other at home.

And while we were in Savannah we visited Bill Fielder managing editor of the Savannah Morning News... Bill is one of our favorite characters. He's been good to Statesboro and Bulloch County in giving its doings space in the Morning News. And we visited with Jack Cabbage, who is the business manager for "Ole Betsey."

He gave us an idea or two on how to manage The Bulloch Herald. And over in front of the Savannah Hotel we ran into Marion Porter of the Central of Georgia. We stood there and talked about the "Nancy Hanks"... about what a wonderful community Statesboro and Bulloch County is... about what a character Alfred Dorman is, and how much "The Bull" means to Statesboro and Bulloch County... and about the price of shoes—he wears a size 12-A and I wear a size 11-AA... and how he had just bought a new pair—as a sort of delayed Christmas present to himself... and about how maybe someday the "Nancy" might, somehow, come through Statesboro... we just had a fine visit.

And then we ran into John Sullivan, editor of the Savannah Evening Press... we visited—talked about his daughter, Jane, who was

We've Had Time To Think About Gratitude

BY VIRGINIA RUSSELL

During this season of "Thank you" notes we have had occasion to think a great deal about gratitude. We even recalled a sermon we heard several years ago on "Gratitude." The minister expressed his belief that the lack of this quality was one of our most pronounced sins.

This certainly was not our sin, we argued. "After all, we are terribly grateful," we told ourselves. And agreed that our great sin was our failure to let people who had been kind and good to us know that we felt grateful. God knew because we had commended with Him often—we thought.

Even during the last Thanksgiving season we were enumerating all our numerous blessings to our family, especially emphasizing the fact that we felt extremely thankful for health. And went on to point out that over a period of twenty years neither partner in our marriage nor any child had ever been ill for longer than a day or so during this long period. But after the Christmas holidays we spent a couple of days in and out of bed. It was then that we gave ourselves a little talking to "So you thought you were grateful for health? Only the person who has lost his health can truly be grateful," we informed ourselves. It's like all of us who say our blessing before each meal—we can't possibly be really thankful for food when none of us has ever been hungry. Can we?"

And so our meditations continued. "How can we be really grateful for warm homes and warm clothes when so few of us have ever been bitterly cold?"

Many of us are often hearing saying that we are so grateful that no war is being fought on our home soils. But are these just utterances that have no depth? Can we or are we even capable of feeling gratitude for this blessing when we have never experienced the horror, heartache, and hell of battle at home?

So in mulling over this subject of gratitude we decided that we must appear to God like a child appears to his parents. Children take every thing for granted, more or less. They accept all that is done for them by their parents as their just desserts. Parents do not hold this against their children, they even expect it, since they understand the limitations of children. But parents do expect their children to eventually grow up.

So, we wonder, if we and our inability to comprehend the fullness of our rich heritage is being an American citizen so blessed in a thousand different ways, are a rule rather than an exception... we wonder if God, like parents who expect their children to grow up eventually, isn't looking for signs of maturity in His American children?

May we develop real appreciation for our gifts without ever having to give them up, in order to know their value.

OFFICER "TUCK" Tucker is on the job. And he proved that "They all look alike to me" when he put a ticket on Mayor Bill Bowen's car one day last week Mayor Bowen had left his car parked in a restricted area—on a yellow pair—as a sort of delayed Christmas present to himself... and about how maybe someday the "Nancy" might, somehow, come through Statesboro... we just had a fine visit.

Mr. And Mrs. Marks Make Home In Portal

BY MRS. EDNA BRANNEN

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Marks, formerly of Hagan, Ga., have recently moved here and are residing in the apartment in the home of Mrs. Lillie Finch Hulse. Mr. Marks is now serving as our town policeman.

Mrs. Marks' mother, Mrs. J. R. Hodge also of Hagan is making her home with her daughter, who honored her last Sunday on her 76th birthday with a surprise Birthday Dinner.

Those present for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hoke of Savannah, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hodge and children of Hagan, and Mr. and Mrs. Loris Hodge and children of Bloomingdale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan, Jimmy and Becky of Sylvania, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. J. Bowen. They motored over to Metter in the afternoon to visit with Mr. Jack Bowen who has been quite ill for some time.

Master Sgt. Doy J. Williams and Mrs. Williams have returned to Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, after spending a three weeks furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams here, also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Truett in Swainsboro. Miss Billie Jean Williams of Augusta joined the family circle here during their visit.

The W.S.C.S. of the Portal Methodist Church, met with Mrs. J. C. Parrish last Monday afternoon, with Mrs. E. L. Womack as co-hostess.

They used for their program "Modern Samaritans," with eight members taking part on the program.

During the Social hour the hostesses served a salad course, cake and coffee.

AAUW HEARS TALK ON LIFE IN AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

The American Association of University Women met in the lobby of West Hall at the college on Tuesday, January 13, with Miss Marjorie Crouch, Miss Dorothy Dahoney, Miss Dorothy Hilliard, Miss Viola Perry, and Miss Faye Edwards as hostesses.

Miss Dahoney, chairman of the legal status committee was in charge of the program. She presented Miss Geraldine LeMay, head librarian of the Savannah Public Library who talked on "Women in the Lands Down-under."

Miss LeMay spent several years in Australia and New Zealand. She talked on the life of Australian women, telling the role of women as homemakers though they lacked the conveniences of the American women. She said that the salary basis of the women who work is much lower than in this country. She pointed out that women are privileged to vote and have the rights of citizenship with a fine imposed on all who fail to vote.

TO AMEND CHARTER

GEORGIA—Bulloch County.
The Superior Court of said county, do hereby certify that the following facts:

1. Petitioner's charter was granted by this Honorable Court on the 31st day of May, 1950, and said charter was accepted by the organizers of said corporation and since that time petitioner has functioned as a corporation.

2. Petitioner shows that at a meeting of the stockholders of such corporation, duly called for that purpose, a resolution was adopted by the affirmative vote of the owners of two-thirds of the capital stock of petitioner, resolving that the corporation should amend its charter and franchise to the state and be dissolved as a corporation.

3. Petitioner shows that such dissolution may be accomplished by an application for leave to sell the assets of any person having claims or demands of any character against said corporation.

WHEREFORE petitioner prays that an order be granted fixing the time for a hearing of this petition not less than four weeks from the time of such order, and that said petition be ordered filed in the office of the clerk of said court, and a copy of the petition and order be published once a week for four (4) weeks in the official gazette of said county, and that petition be dissolved.

TO AMEND CHARTER

GEORGIA—Bulloch County.
The Superior Court of said county, do hereby certify that the following facts:

1. Petitioner's charter was granted by this Honorable Court on the 31st day of May, 1950, and said charter was accepted by the organizers of said corporation and since that time petitioner has functioned as a corporation.

2. Petitioner shows that at a meeting of the stockholders of such corporation, duly called for that purpose, a resolution was adopted by the affirmative vote of the owners of two-thirds of the capital stock of petitioner, resolving that the corporation should amend its charter and franchise to the state and be dissolved as a corporation.

3. Petitioner shows that such dissolution may be accomplished by an application for leave to sell the assets of any person having claims or demands of any character against said corporation.

WHEREFORE petitioner prays that an order be granted fixing the time for a hearing of this petition not less than four weeks from the time of such order, and that said petition be ordered filed in the office of the clerk of said court, and a copy of the petition and order be published once a week for four (4) weeks in the official gazette of said county, and that petition be dissolved.

Bull Dogs Lick Red Caps 74-24 Cards Defeat Pilots 35-29

The Bull Dogs handed the Red Caps a stinging defeat in Junior League play this week to tie for second place in the League with the Pilots. The Cardinals held on to their first place position even though they were defeated by the second place Pilots 35 to 29.

Bulloch Is Out To Win 1953 Forestry Contest

If Bulloch land owners can continue to keep the county green through this fire season, the county forestry council thinks there is a chance to win the $1000 top prize in the keep-Georgia-green contest.

When the Georgia Forestry Association announced the contest for this year, a group of interested people set up a county council to help promote the efforts to keep the county from being burned by wild fires.

R. P. Millard and J. Harry Lee were named co-chairmen of the council. Allen R. Lanier, Leodel Coleman, D. B. Turner, and Byron Dyer were asked to serve on the council. J. W. Roberts was named secretary and treasurer.

The presidents, vice presidents, and secretaries of all the community Farm Bureau chapters were asked to serve on the fire-finding committee. These community officers were also asked to help keep wild fires reported to the ranger.

The contest will be judged on the basis of local effort, initiative, originality, thoroughness, organization, analysis of problem, direction, cooperation, least number of fires per 1000 acres of forest land, and smallest percentage of forest area burned.

Goals set by the council are to reduce the number of forest fires, reduce the total acreage burned, stimulate interest in better forest protection, and create a greater sense of personal responsibility regarding forest fire prevention among all citizens.

Members of the Drag On In Club will play host to all teenagers at the Recreation Center on Friday night of this week following the basketball game with Swainsboro. Members of the Swainsboro team will be invited to attend the reception along with all other teenagers. All members are requested to bring their January dues to Treasurer, Glynn Jennings Jr.

WILLOW HILL SELECTED AS STUDENT TEACHING CENTER BY FT. VALLEY S. C.

The Vocational Agriculture Department at the Willow Hill School has been selected again this year by the Fort Valley State College as one of their student teaching centers. The Bulloch County board of education cooperates with the college in providing opportunities and experiences whereby the prospective teacher gets a working knowledge of the job and responsibilities of a teacher of agriculture.

Edward Hoppa and William Grier, Seniors of the Fort Valley State College arrived here on January 10, 1953. They will observe the local teacher of agriculture, John Lawton in the performance of his duties, prior to assuming full teaching responsibilities.

The student teaching program provides for the use of certain methods, procedures and techniques in the teaching and learning process.

New Ford Miracle Ride

Here's new freedom from bounce, pitch and sway... an entirely new standard of riding comfort!

If you've thought it takes gas-eating weight and hard-to-park length to give real riding comfort you ought to try this '53 Ford. For Ford's new Miracle Ride actually seems to lay a carpet of smoothness even over the roughest roads. There's no bounce, pitch and sway to bother you, no uncomfortable roll on curves. Ford's new Miracle Ride makes a new era of riding comfort and quiet. It's another big reason why Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

The New Standard of the American Road

You've got to Value Check this new Ford's 41 "Worth More" features to know why Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

In this new '53 Ford you'll find not only a new concept of riding and driving comfort... you'll find more of the things you want and need than in any other car in the low-price field.

You'll find the "Go" you need, in Ford's high-compression V-8 and Six engines (and both thrive on regular gas). You'll find the great, all-round visibility... the easy handling, braking and parking you need for today's traffic. And you'll appreciate beauty that "belongs," wherever you may drive. No wonder Ford is the New Standard of the American Road.

80% less road shock! By increasing front wheel travel and redesigning the rubber compression bumpers, front end road shock is reduced as much as 80%. Springs are tailored-to-weight of each model, for best riding comfort, whichever model you buy.

Automatic Ride Control! Ford's Variable-Rate rear spring suspension actually makes the effective spring "stiffness" vary automatically as road and load conditions change. You get a smooth, level, comfortable ride on boulevard or roughest back road.

All day comfort! Scientifically designed contour seats, both front and rear, have thick foam rubber cushions. Non-sag spring construction and rear seat cushions change. You get a smooth, level, comfortable ride on boulevard or roughest back road.

When Billie Carr and Ann Becker opened their new business out on U. S. Highway 301 South, known as "LITTLE ANN'S," they did not realize that the building space was too small. It wasn't long before they found out. So they built a small building a short distance to the rear which they were going to use for storage space when the need became apparent. But when the time arrived for them to use the additional space for their new business, they found that the building they had made a much for them, so they sat down to try to figure it out, but can you imagine where they sat? On the side of the wall!

See it... Value Check it... Test Drive it

Bulloch County Can Win $2,000 In Forestry Contest.

BEFORE—Here is what Frank Rushing began with when he purchased the Riggs Old Mill Pond and the home on it, back in 1947. He does not know who the people are shown standing on the front porch. The cut was made from an old photograph which Mr. Rushing had copied.

NOW—Here is what Frank Rushing has done to the house shown above. He moved the old house 200 yards and went to work on this. This is how far he has gone, with much more to be done. He invites citizens of Bulloch county to see it.

Camellias Go On Show

The vote of confidence followed the announcement by Loy Waters, president of the City Council, that the City Council had notified the Steering Committee that the Council had voted to suspend the financial aid to the Chamber of Commerce.

Local Hospital Is Approved For Nursing Program

Three years ago the League of Nursing Education of Georgia made a survey of the state and found that there is a great need for nurses in Georgia, and found that the shortage of qualified nurses is a condition dangerous to the welfare of the citizens of the state.

"Little Mother" Mary Emmy Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Johnston, and her "family" were declared the winner in the "biggest family" classification at the First Annual Baby Doll Show for 1953, held last Saturday at the Recreation Center.

"Little Mother" Johnston had six dolls in her "family."

Mrs. Lester Nesmith won the prize for the oldest doll entered. She presented one known to be 65 years old. Mrs. Ronald Nell placed second in this classification with a doll 40 years old.

Patricia Pye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pye of 229 East Main, won the prize for the largest doll, with Jane Brannen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubert Brannen, showing the second largest doll. Dottie Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Donaldson, showed the smallest doll, with Charlene Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Franklin, showing the second smallest doll.

Mary Emmy Johnston also showed the funniest doll with Kay Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thomas, showed the second funniest doll.

Nancy Mitchell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mitchell of Metter, whose grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tyson of Statesboro, won the prize for the best all-around doll, with Billy Alderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Alderman winning second place.

All first and second places were awarded ribbons with a Panda Bear being awarded to Nancy Mitchell, with Billie Alderman receiving a best all-around ribbon. More than 150 dolls were entered in the show.

The Doll Show, to be an annual event, was sponsored this year by the Happy-Go-Lucky Club, with all proceeds from the show to be used for an outing with the mothers of the club members as guests.

Mrs. George Johnston served as program chairman for the Doll Show and assisted with all the arrangements.

Rotary Club Hear Costa Ricans Tell About Their Home

"Our president can go anywhere in our country without a bodyguard," Mr. Manuel H. Porras, president of the Normal School in San Ramon, Costa Rica, Central America, told members of the Statesboro Rotary Club Monday of this week.

Rotary Club Hear Costa Ricans Tell About Their Home

Mr. Porras was speaking to the Rotarians on the democratic ways of his people in the small country of Costa Rica. "We have a free country... a democratic country. We have a president, elected by the people in a free election. We are trying to maintain the democratic traditions of our country," he said.

Mr. Porras was presented to the Rotary Club, together with other Costa Rican educators, by Dr. Martin Pittman, who is escorting the group on a tour of eight states in the U. S. observing and studying the educational system of this country.

Mr. Porras was recently honored by the Rotary Club of San Jose for his outstanding work in education in Costa Rica.

Mr. Porras is principal of a general experimental school in that Central American, explained that their educational system is "Most like yours here. We are trying to advance our secondary education and Dr. Pittman thought the best way was to bring us here to see your wonderful school system, your schools, teaching methods. We are studying to get something for our country," he said.

Others of the group speaking briefly were: Mr. Isaac Amorita, head of all the high schools in Costa Rica; and Mr. Rafael Cortes, director of primary schools in Costa Rica.

The group sang a native song for the Rotarians, accompanied by Mrs. Roger Holland.
